5/11/2021	DBF	Review of prior representation of client re affiliate purchase 9% interest in a distributor several years ago. Client wants to essentially unwind this transaction (it will require a new purchase agreement; options from the original deal will expire and the new options will need to be granted). However, the client never informed any state agency (board, etc) of the CHOW for the original deal. We had prepared a chart for him indicating which states require notification (some had a threshold of 10% change to initiate CHOW notice, but most required notice upon any change). Given that he never informed any board of the CHOW and he now wants to go back to the original structure, determined appropriate course of action.	0.30	$195.00
